They may also enroll in courses offered by other departments during the second semester.

* If the study period is one semester, students will primarily study the Japanese language, society, and culture, while also taking some introductory courses in their affiliated department.

【Notes】

① Please type information directly into the PDF or Excel format.

② Please make sure that your name spelling, address, phone number, date of birth, department/major, year, etc., matches the information on each document.

③ Documents must be prepared in either Japanese or English.

If the attached documents (No.16-20) to be submitted to the Immigration Services Agency of Japan are written in a foreign language (including English), please be sure to attach a translation in Japanese.

Please do not write the translation directly on the original documents.

④ Please prepare the original documents and be careful not to forget to attach any attachments.

【Important notice regarding our exchange program】

As recruiting exchange students for Spring 2027, the following precautions are required. We will only accept applicants who agree to all of these precautions.

① There is a possibility that the acceptance of your students in Spring 2027 may be cancelled or postponed due to the infectious diseases and international situations.

② Depending on the processing status at the Immigration Services Agency of Japan, the Certificate of Eligibility (COE) may not be issued in time for the beginning of the semester. In such cases, the students concerned and their home universities will be notified separately.

If a student's arrival in Japan is delayed due to the issuance status of the COE, Japanese language courses for exchange students may be offered online, as has been done in the past.

③ Depending on social conditions, restrictions on activities (e.g., prohibition of travel to distant places) and restrictions on part-time jobs (e.g., prohibition of part-time work) may be imposed.
